The Flower Table table adds a nice gathering point to any play area. With its nicely carved shape, the Flower Table will accommodate the items that young children always seem to bring to the playground. The Flower Table also functions very well as a point for creative experiments, for instance building with sand. The Flower Table can also function as a seat.

Last but not least, the Flower Table can be a point to which children can retract when the need a break from the more Physically demanding play. It can be the place where the next play moves are considered or agreed upon: a socio-emotional respite from wild play.
